July 15-19, 2026

Dear Fair Supporter,

Preserving Tradition, Building Community, Shaping Future Leaders –

If you believe in these goals, we invite you to help us make the 2026 Allamakee County Fair the best yet.

The Allamakee County Fair is July 15-19, but planning for the fair never stops.

Exhibitor families set goals and make decisions about their county fair projects months, and even years, in advance. It is the planning, goal setting, and work ethic that comes along with these projects, that shapes these young people into Allamakee County's future community members, employees, and business owners.

For five days in July, the efforts of our county youth are on display. We celebrate their achievements, while showcasing everything Allamakee County has to offer, and providing affordable entertainment to all.

In addition to youth livestock shows, youth & open class static exhibits, and a variety of free grounds entertainments, we have a great lineup of Grandstand Entertainment:

Wednesday - TRUCK & TRACTOR PULL – Open to all pullers!

Thursday - 74 Promotions Motocross

Friday – Tyler Richton & the High Bank Boys, opening for Country Music Star Tracy Byrd

Saturday - ROGUE RODEO starting with Mutton Bustin'!

Sunday – Tri-County Off-Road Assoc TOUGH TRUCK Competition

Returning in 2026 – Royalty Baked Goods Auctions

Iron Ridge Church All Faiths - Sunday Morning Worship in the Show Barn

Postville, New Albin, Harpers Ferry, Dorchester, Waterville, Waukon, Lansing, Volney, Waukon Junction, Rossville, Churchtown, Ludlow, Dalby, Elon, Ion, Hardin, Lycurgus, Maud, Thompson Corner, Village Creek - The people and places of Allamakee County come together July 15-19! Experience the Traditions, Make the Memories, Come to the Fair!

As costs associated with building and grounds maintenance, insurance, and entertainment continue to rise, we want you to know how much your support is appreciated. Participation in the Allamakee County Fair continues to grow; our barns are full with the future of Allamakee County!
